Clarification about Cancellation, Void, and Modification

Void

Can usually be done within the same day of issuance (before the airline's deadline). In most cases, it is free of charge,but depends on airline policies.

Modification

(Reissue / Revalidation)

Any change in travel date, routing, or passenger details is subject to airline rules. Fare differences and reissue fees may apply.

Cancellation

After the void period has passed, a ticket can only be canceled according to the airline's refund policy. Penalties may apply, and some tickets may be non-refundable.

All of the above services (cancellations, voids, or modifications) are handled exclusively by our team.
